Read the poem and answer the questions.

Cage Bird and Sky Bird
 Cage Bird swung
 From an apple tree
 And his cage was of silver
 And ivory.
 Nobody can be so happy, so happy;
 Sang the Cage Bird.

Sky Bird sang .
 From a cloudless sky.
 And his wings were wide
 nd bright his eye.
 Nobody can be as happy as I;
 Sang the Sky Bird.

That wild song
 To the garden fell .
 And Cage Bird heard it;
 in his silver cell .
 Are you free then, are you truly free?
 Cried the Cage Bird.

Sky Bird flew
 In the trail of the sun
 And swiftly he soared,
 Away from the garden.
 Sadly sang Cage Bird, when the day was done;
 Sang the Cage Bird.

Test 15

Read the following text and answer the questions given below it.

1. The Lost City at Sun City in South Africa is a very interesting place to visit. A legend has said that centuries ago, an African tribe from the northern part of the country brought with them their rich heritage and settled in an ancient volcanic crater which they called the Valley of the Sun. The people were great architects and had a genuine love of nature. They created a magnificent city of unique architectural design. Unfortunately, an earthquake struck and turned the city into ruins. The inhabitants were forced to flee from their homes. Today, the city has been restored to its former splendour and named 'The Lost City'.
2. The focal point of the city is the Palace, a hotel which overlooks 25 hectares of jungle and the water adventure park. Behind the Palace is a golf course which stretches across the ochre bushveld. Here golfers may get to see live crocodiles enjoying their haven under the sun at the 13th hole. The Water adventure park boasts of a Lazy River Ride for the young and old who want to take it easy. The wave-pool creates perfect surfing waves which roll to a white sand beach lined with palm trees.

3. This is the place that everyone loves. Not for the faint-hearted is the Temple of Courage with its fantastic water chutes, challenging the visitors to plunge nearly 100 m of rock surface at speeds of up to 35 kilometers per hour.
4. Animal and nature lovers would not miss going into the game parks of South Africa. There are 17 parks of which the most popular is the Kruger National Park. However, just a stone's throw from Sun City, in the same volcanic crater, is the Pilanesberg National Park. It spreads over 60,000 hectares of bush-land and supports an interesting wildlife population. Visitors either ride on horses or take a safari jeep to explore the park. Guides are provided to assist them. The visitors would be able to see the animals at close range. According to the guides, a successful safari drive is one where the Big Five are sighted - the lion, leopard, rhinoceros, buffalo and elephant.
- (1) In which country is 'The Lost City' located? (01 mark)
- (2) What made the Africans leave their homes in the volcanic crater? (01 mark)
- (3) Say whether the following statements are True (T) or False (F) by writing 'T' or 'F' in the space provided.
- (i) The 'Lazy River Ride' would be popular among children.
- (ii) Safari drive is considered unsuccessful if any of the Big Five animals is not seen. (1/2 x 2 = 1 mark)

Read the following text and answer the questions.

"Mum, hurry up. Come and see. Several planks from the back of our neighbour's house have been removed," cried Cassie one morning.

"Where?" enquired her mum.

"There ... can't you see? There's a gap in the wall — big enough for one person to crawl in."

Cassie's mother, Madam Sue, pecked through the windows. "Oh yes, I see it. The house looks like it's been ransacked. Hey, I think there's someone inside. Yes, the thief is still there."

At that moment, the thief turned and noticed the two ladies were looking at him. Realizing he was being watched, the thief grabbed a stick and tried to flee.

"Come, Cassie. The thief is getting away. We've no time to lose."

The mother and daughter rushed out and pounced on the thief who tried to attack them.

"I hit him hard with a piece of wood and the thief dropped the stick," said Madam Sue to the reporters later. "He also punched me in the face when Cassie and I tried to hold him down," she added, showing the swelling on her face and bruises on her hand.

Another neighbour, who heard their shouts for help during the struggle with the thief, came to their aid. Together, they tied up the thief with some cloth before handing him over to the police.
